

Adult Formation
Session 3 - Barbara Holmes
Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever been part of a community that experienced a crisis? What was that like?
2. Have you had an experience of changing your perspective after spending time with others who are different from you? Describe it.
3. Do you have a Jonah story? Share it if you are comfortable.

Questions on the examples of responses to community crises

1. Which of the examples were the most impactful to you? Why? What emotions did they invoke?
2. Did any of the examples make you uncomfortable? Why? What emotions did they invoke?
3. All of these responses are artistic responses - why is that? What is it about art that allows for a meaningful response to crises?